Oxford Anglican Cursillo is mainly faith funded which means that others have made donations to cover the cost of your weekend (currently £170 per person). However we do ask for a deposit of £25 with this application. Cheques should be made payable to "Anglican Cursillo in the Diocese of Oxford". Beyond that there is no question of us asking you to pay for your weekend. Your booking will be confirmed in due course.

Continuing to faith fund our weekends does, of course, rely on attracting new donations to our charity, one off or regular. Therefore, towards the end of a weekend, we provide an opportunity, for those who are able, to make a donation towards Oxford Anglican Cursillo, but we stress that this is entirely voluntary and nobody is refused a place on a Cursillo weekend because funding is a problem.

I am committed to going on the weekend and enclose a cheque for £25 as a deposit
